

Minolta AF 35-70/F4 Macro

May 9, 2007 / Gavin Jackson

Image not found or type unknown

macro 20070509 2 Originally uploaded by gavin.jackson.

My new lens arrived yesterday (actually it's yet another old Minolta AF lens manufactured back in 1985) - it's a 35-70/F4 (constant aperture) with a macro switch. The macro switch allows you to take macro shots from about 30cm away (using manual focus).

All photos taken with this lens are tagged "35-70/F4" on my flickr stream.

Downloaded from <https://www.gavinj.net/post/minolta-af-35-70f4-macro>

Generated July 10, 2026. Copyright Gavin Jackson. All rights reserved.